D.W. Morgan Company Named Among Top 100 Diversity-owned Businesses by Leading Diversity Magazine

Pleasanton, CA — Nov. 11, 2005 — D.W. Morgan Company, a leader in global supply-chain transportation management services, has been selected as one of the top 100 diversity-owned business by the nations' leading multicultural Internet site, DiversityBusiness.com.

“This award verifies there is an increasing recognition by corporations of the economic power of multicultural businesses,” said D.W. Morgan President and CEO David Morgan. “This year alone, diversity-owned businesses contributed over $1.4 trillion in sales to the U.S. economy. This kind of economic clout and demographic change has made corporations realize buying products and services from diversity-owned companies positively impacts their business’ bottom line.”

This is the sixth annual listing of California’s top 100 diversity-owned businesses. Ranging in revenue size from five million dollars to over one billion dollars, the companies listed on the Diversity100 represent the California’s top multicultural earners.

“Diversity businesses and consumers are a growing force in the U.S. economy, and a force to be reckoned with,” said Kenton Clarke, president and CEO of DiversityBusiness.com. “It’s no longer only about the Fortune 1000. This is a whole business segment that can carry its own, that provides jobs, products and services, and generates wealth for their communities. These are the new leaders in American business.”

The Diversity 100 is a classification that represents the top 100 diversity-owned (women, Blacks, Hispanics, Asians, Native Indian and other minority groups) businesses in California, in sectors such as technology, manufacturing, food service and professional services. The Diversity 100 is produced annually by DiversityBusiness.com, the nation's leading multicultural B2B Internet portal that links large organizational buyers to multicultural product and service suppliers. Diversity 100 winners are highly sought after by Fortune 500 corporations wishing to increase spending with diversity-owned businesses.

The winning companies will be honored at a special awards ceremony at DiversityBusiness.com's Sixth Annual Multicultural Business Conference, March 29 – March 31, 2006 at the MGM Mirage in Las Vegas, Nevada.
